

Level 3 Diploma in Counselling Skills Advice & Guidance

North Tyneside Council

Enrolment Requirements

For more information or to apply ring (0191) 643 2288 or to apply online go to www.northtyneside.gov.uk/ala

This is a free advice and guidance session.

However learners must already have completed a Level 2 qualification in counselling such as the Certificate in Counselling or the Award in Helping Skills prior to attending this session.

What will I learn on this course?

This free advice and guidance session provides an overview of the requirements for the Level 3 Diploma in Counselling Skills course.

There will be an opportunity to speak to the tutor, who will brief you fully about the course content, in preparation for the first session. This may be online or by telephone due to the global health issues at present.

Assessment

Awarding body: N/A

Not applicable.

Course Length

1 session delivered virtually.

Attendance

Please attend if you are enrolling on the Level 3 Diploma.

What else do I need to know?

Learners will be set work to complete at home and must take responsibility for producing evidence for their online portfolio.

What could I do next?

To become a qualified counsellor, you must undertake a Foundation degree in Counselling or equivalent qualification. Attainment of the Level 3 qualification provides a progression route to thee degree after which learners may seek British Association of Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP) accreditation as a Counsellor.